BOSTON, JUNE 12.

Saturday laſt the following Addreſs was preſented to his Excellency the Governor.

To his Excellency FRANCIS BERNARD, Eſq; Governor in Chief of the Province of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, &c.

The ADDRESS of his Majeſty's Council, in Anſwer to his Excellency's Speech at the Opening of the General Court; and to his Speech of the Third of this Inſtant.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THE board having taken into conſideration your two ſpeeches, beg leave to return our warmeſt congratulations on the repeal of the Stamp-Act. An event that has created the greateſt and moſt univerſal joy that was ever felt on the continent of America, and which promiſes the moſt happy fruits to Great-Britain, from the growing proſpect and grateful affection of her Colonies. Not inſenſible of the difficulties that have attended this important affair, and the dangers which not only this province but all America have eſcaped, we aſſure your Excellency that nothing ſhall be wanting on our part that may contribute towards a proper improvement of this happy event, and the promoting ſo deſirable an object as domeſtick peace. From ſuch a diſpoſition we cannot but take notice with regret of any thing which threatens to draw the leaſt cloud over the preſent general joy. It is with pain we expreſs our apprehenſions that your Excellency's ſpeech may tend to lead ſome who are not acquainted with the ſtate of the province, to entertain ſuch an opinion of the government, or the people, or both, as they do not deſerve. When your Excellency is pleaſed to mention inflammations, diſtractions, infatuations, and the fury of the people, you ſeem to refer to ſome enormities committed by unknown and abandoned perſons in a time of univerſal uneaſineſs and diſtreſs. But your Excellency cannot mean to impute thoſe enormities, juſtly abhorred by all ranks among us, to the body of this people, or any branch of the government. Deſtable as they are, they can never leſſen the reputation of this province, nor doth it need a veil on this occaſion. Villains are to be found in the beſt communities upon earth.—And whatever exceſſes may have happened in America, under our late diſtreſſing apprehenſions, the relief kindly granted us demonſtrates that our moſt gracious Sovereign and the Britiſh Parliament knew how to diſtinguiſh the complaints and dutiful remonſtrances of loyal ſubjects, who thought themſelves aggrieved, from the violences of a profligate rabble. Notwithſtanding the intimations unhappily dropped from your Excellency, we are ſure no ill temper generally prevails among us—nothing can lead the Parliament to repent its indulgence to us—— nothing can afford juſt matter of triumph to thoſe who were for maintaining the Stamp-Act, nor of ſorrow and concern to thoſe who procured its repeal.

Your Excellency is pleaſed further to ſay, when the government is attacked in form, when there is a profeſt intention to deprive it of its beſt and moſt able ſervants, whoſe only crime is their fidelity to the Crown, I cannot be indifferent, but find myſelf obliged to exereiſe every legal and conſtitutional power to maintain the King's authority againſt this ill judged and ill timed oppugnation of it. Whatever might have been your Excellency's intention, this is, according to the more obvious meaning of your expreſſions, an heavy charge, in which no particular perſons of any order of men are ſpecified, delivered in a ſpeech to both houſes of Aſſembly, and which the world is left to place where they pleaſe.

Your Excellency expreſsly ſays, there has been an attack upon government in form, and an ill judged and ill timed oppugnation of the King's authority. A regard to our own character, to truth and juſtice, and the reputation of the province in which we have the honour to ſerve his Majeſty, oblige us to ſpeak upon this point with a freedom in which we are far from meaning the leaſt diſreſpect to your Excellency. Silence upon ſuch an occaſion would merit the imputation which ſome may be ready from your manner of expreſſion to lay upon us, and would prove us equally unworthy of the choice that has been made of us, and your Excellency's approbation.—Have then the people of this province been guilty of an attack upon government in form, or or of any oppugnation of the King's authority—We declare to your Excellency we know of no ſuch thing—The people ever loyal to the beſt of Sovereigns, and ſenſible of their felicity in connection with and ſubordination to the Mother-Country, have given new and unaffected teſtimony that theſe happy diſpoſitions have encreaſed in all orders upon the late indulgence granted to them,—they have rejoiced with the higheſt marks of honour and gratitude to the King, to both Houſes of Parliament, and to our friends and patrons in Great-Britain,—they continually demonſtrate a natural and warm affection to the country from which they derive, and by which they have been protected and cheriſhed.——It has been no ſmall addition to the joy of the wiſe and ſober upon the late great occaſion, that quite through the province good order and decorum have happily been preſerved, and it is to the honour of that gracious prince under whoſe government all ranks among us account themſelves happy.—And we think it of peculiar importance at the preſent ſeaſon, to the people of this province that they be viewed in this light. Your Excellency will therefore allow us to bear this publick teſtimony,—a teſtimony which may perhaps appear the more diſintereſted as it comes from thoſe who are not their immediate repreſentatives.

In the above cited paſſage, and in a great part of your ſpeech, if your Excellency had a particular reference to the tranſaction of both Houſes in the late election of councellors, we beg leave to aſſure your Excellency that we know of nothing done by the General Aſſembly on that day, that can, with any ſhadow of propriety, be deemed an attack upon government, or an oppugnation of the King's authority: Every part of the legiſlature has acted in its proper place, and exerted thoſe powers only with which they were intruſted by charter; no branch has uſurped or interfered with the rights of another. Diverſity of ſentiment reſpecting men and meaſures, and colliſions of parties, are common in all free governments. Some elections have been made which your Excellency has ſignified your diſapprobation of, and it has had its effect; no one having called in queſtion your right to negative ſuch elections, or oppoſe you in the exerciſe of this branch of your authority.

It would be improper to deliver our opinion concerning the expediency of any inſtances in which your Excellency, and the two Houſes of Aſſembly, have exerted the ſeveral powers that reſpectively belonged unto each; but, we are obliged to aſſert, that nothing has taken place but what has been conſtitutional, and according to charter: And we are perſuaded your Excellency, upon reflection, will not think that an election duly made, though diſagreeable to the chair, deſerves to be called a formal attack upon government, or an oppugnation of the King's authority: And ſhould any thing like this be ever attempted, your Excellency would find this board zealous to defend our Sovereign's honour, and the conſtitutional power of his repreſentative.

We beg leave to aſſure your Excellency, that we ſhall heartily join with you in healing diviſions and burying animoſities, ſhould they ariſe; and that we ſhall chearfully contribute all in our power to the peace and honour of your adminiſtration.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

The letter from the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Conway to your Excellency, accompanying your ſecond ſpeech from the chair, affords us a moſt agreeable occaſion of repeatedly declaring the ſtrong ſentiments of reſpect and gratitude, with which we regard the lenity and tenderneſs already ſo remarkably manifeſted on the part of his Majeſty and the Parliament, to the American Colonies, and the proſpect given us of ſome additional indulgences; for all which it will be our pleaſure as it muſt be our glory to make the moſt dutiful and affectionate returns.—Thoſe are the diſpoſitions which have uniformly influenced this board before we ſaw this letter ſo happily adapted to confirm us in them. And we beg leave to aſſure your Excellency that from theſe diſpoſitions we ſhall continue to act.

There are ſeveral paragraphs in your Excellency's ſpeeches that have been conſtrued to bear hard on thoſe gentlemen who now conſtitute the board: But your explanation of them in Council, and your repeated declaration, that you had no ſuch intention, have given ſatisfaction to the board.

We again beg leave to aſſure your Excellency that our beſt abilities ſhall faithfully be employed, in promoting his Majeſty's honour and intereſt, and in making every part of your adminiſtration eaſy and happy: And ſuch teſtimonials of your conduct as are contained in Mr. Secretary Conway's letter, will not ſuffer us to conclude without recognizing your Excellency in the united character of a true friend to the province and a faithful ſervant to the crown.

To which ADDRESS his Excellency was pleaſed to return the following Anſwer.

GENTLEMEN,

I THANK you for your congratulations on the repeal of the Stamp-Act, and for your aſſurances that nothing ſhall be wanting on your part, that may contribute towards a proper improvement of this happy event.

Your zeal and concern for the reputation of your province is very commendable: I muſt approve of the motives of it at this time, although I cannot concur with you in the means. But I hope the time will come, when I ſhall join with you in repreſenting this province to as great advantage as I have heretofore been uſed to do. For when I conſider the natural good diſpoſition and united loyalty of this people, I cannot think, that the influence, under which their credit and intereſt now labour, will be of long continuance.

I ſhall not enter into an explanation of any expreſſions I have uſed in my ſpeeches: It may be ſufficient to ſay, that an application of them to their true meaning, will produce a juſtification of them, whenever I ſhall find it neceſſary to enter upon ſo diſagreeable a taſk. I perſuade myſelf, that no reflection proceeding from them, can be applied to your honourable board, whoſe general conduct I have ſo often had, and ſtill have, great cauſe to approve.

If I had not been uſed to ſee the meaning of what I ſay in publick, perverted to ſerve particular purpoſes, I ſhould have been ſurprized that any one could have thought of picking out of a ſpeech of mine, matters derogatory to your honourable board, whoever propagated ſuch an inſinuation, muſt ſurely be unacquainted with the good underſtanding, which I have conſtantly cultivated with your board, ſince I firſt took the chair, and the frequent declarations I have made, eſpecially of late, of my entire ſatisfaction with, and confidence in, the conduct of his Majeſty's council. However, I am very glad to find, that theſe reports have not had the effect for which they were calculated, which I believe, were not well intended, either to you or to me.

I am much obliged to you for your aſſurances, that your beſt abilities ſhall be faithfully employed in promoting his Majeſty's honour and intereſt, and in making every part of my adminiſtration eaſy and happy; and for your kind recognition of me, in the united character of a true friend to the province and a faithful ſervant to the crown. I have been very deſirous to maintain both thoſe characters; but perhaps my earneſtneſs in endeavouring to preſerve the former, rather by real ſervices than by oſtentatious profeſſions, and a ſtrict attention to the duties of the latter, have been the chief cauſes why the one has not been as fully confirmed to me as the other. However, I doubt not, but that with your aſſiſtance, I ſhall ſoon ſee this government reſtored to its peace and honour, and the character of every perſon concerned in it, brought to its true eſtimation.

FRANCIS BERNARD.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

NAPLES, May 24.

A Sudden and very terrible Eruption has lately happened at Mount Gibel (Ætna.) The Lava was ſo abundant and rapid, that in ten Hours only it over-ran about ten Miles, deſtroyed a very conſiderable Grove of Mulberry Trees, and a great Quantity of paſture Grounds.

Genoa, May 25. They write from Madrid, that that Capital is to be made a Place of Arms; that they have taken up and puniſhed there a Number of Robbers and Vagabonds; that all Manner of Games have been prohibited there; and that Publication has been made throughout all the Cities of Spain, that whoever ſhall be convicted of having entered into any Conſpiracy for diſturbing the publick Tranquility, ſhall be put to Death, without Hope of Pardon.

Madrid, May 30. In a late Gazette we gave an Account, that there had been a Fermentation among the Populace at Barcelona, which was ready to break out into an open Revolt, but that the Heads of the Artiſans had cauſed a Deliberation to be fixed up, in which they threaten the Authors and Promoters of theſe Commotions. The Marquis de la Mina, Governor and Captain-General of the Province, for the better ſuppreſſing theſe pernicious Deſigns, which regarded him principally, cauſed the following Publication to be made by Sound of Trumpet: "You have been Witneſſes of the Papers, which have been fixed up againſt my Adminiſtration; I know the Deſign of the People to riſe againſt me; but I exhort them ſtrongly to deſiſt from their Purpoſe, which cannot but prove abortive; otherwiſe I am reſolved, and Orders are given, to burn the Town, and to bury you under the Ruins of your Houſes, on the leaſt Commotion that ſhall be made againſt the King's Authority."—Since this Menace and the Meaſures taken in Conſequence, every thing has been quiet in that City.

Some Advices from Turkey inſinuate, that Prince Heraclius, of Georgia, had actually advanced to Trebiſonde; and that the Sultan, intimidated by his Succeſs, had declared the Prince and his Countrymen free, independent of the Porte, and exempted from Tribute.

Leghorn, May 31. Letters from Conſtantinople adviſe, that Recruits are raiſing with the greateſt Diligence both there and throughout the whole Ottoman Empire.

We now plainly ſee that the Marquis de Marbeuf is reſolved to attack the Malcontents of Corſica; and Paoli is preparing at all Events to ſtand the Attack, being determined to ſacrifice the laſt Drop of his Blood to ſupport his Independency, and the Liberty of his Countrymen.

Madrid, June 4. The Commotions, which we had flattered ourſelves with being ſuppreſſed by the Flight of the Marquis de Squilace, are now blazing out with ſuch additional Violence as to threaten in a very ſerious Manner the total Deſtruction of the Kingdom. A Number of our principal Families talk of retiring until they ſee the Iſſue of theſe Affairs, and ſeveral have already actually ſet out for England. From America we have received Advices that every thing is in the utmoſt Diſorder; ſo that the Affairs of the Spaniſh Monarchy ſeem in every Quarter to be extremely critical.—The thinking Part of the People are of Opinion, that the Jeſuits are at the Bottom of all theſe Diſturbances; and as this Belief daily gains Ground, it is more than probable, that ſome ſevere Reſolution will take Place in regard to that celebrated Society.—The Engliſh Ambaſſador's Return to his own Court, in the midſt of all our Confuſion, occaſions a Variety of Speculations.—The Meaſures which were intended to be taken againſt Portugal, are now entirely ſuſpended, if not laid aſide.

Paris, June 14. A Body of French Forces, conſiſting of 10,000 Men, are marched for the Frontiers of Spain, to be in Readineſs to aſſiſt his Catholick Majeſty, in Caſe of any farther Troubles in that Kingdom.

LONDON, JUNE 21.

HIS Royal Highneſs the Duke of York is to be appointed Lord High Admiral of England, and the Board of Admiralty will continue to exerciſe the ſame Powers as at preſent, under the Denomination of a Council to his Royal Highneſs.

On Wedneſday laſt his Majeſty in Council, paſſed twenty Grants of Lands in Eaſt-Florida, upon Petitions preferred by Gentlemen of Rank and Fortune, who intend ſettling them immediately.

The Portion of the Princeſs Caroline-Matilda bethrothed to the King of Denmark, will be paid out of the ordinary Revenues of the Crown. It is ſaid, it will be 100,000 l. Sterling; that the King is authorized to advance this Sum; and that the Parliament will reimburſe it at the opening of the next Seſſion. As to the Eſtabliſhments of the Duke of York and Glouceſter, and Prince Henry-Frederick, they will likewiſe be ſettled in the approaching Seſſion of Parliament. The 45,000 l. Sterling, which the late Duke of Cumberland enjoyed, will be divided between their Royal Highneſſes; and the two eldeſt will have one a conſiderable Employment in the Marine, and the other an eminent Poſt to the Army; so that the Publick will sustain no additional Expence in this Article: But there is a Talk of augmenting next Year to a Million Sterling the annual Sum of eight hundred thousand Pounds destined for the Support of the Royal Family.

We hear, that the Great Commoner has lately made the following noble and truly patriotick Proposal: That, upon Condition he was permitted to act upon his own Principles, for the publick Good, without the Favourite or any of his Party interfering, he, with four or Five Noblemen and Gentlemen, whose Patriotism is as unquestionable as his own, would, with the greatest Alacrity, serve their Country without Fee or Reward; and that they would not accept or desire the smallest Share of the Emoluments belonging to the Offices they should fill in the Administration, but that the same should be entirely appropriated to the Use of the Publick.——Noble indeed, if true!

In regard to the various Reports circulated in the Papers of an approaching Coalition, and Change in the Ministry, the real Truth, we are confidently assured, is, there is a Party for that Purpose forming under Mr. Pitt and Lord Temple, in which George Grenville, Esq; is destined to a very respectable Post: And as soon as an Alteration in the Ministry takes Place, the Marquis of Granby is to be appointed to the same Honours in the Army as the late Duke of Cumberland held, immediately previous to his Retirement after the Convention of Cloister-severn.

A Nobleman, of no great Fortune, lost 2000 Guineas last Thursday, on one single Throw at the Hazard-Table.

The Brussels Gazette of the ninth Instant, under the Article of London, has the following Paragraph.

"The Refusal of the upper House to approve of the Bill which had passed the House of Commons, touching the Seizure of Papers in the Houses of private Persons, has caused a good Deal of Discontent in the Publick.——The flattering Hopes which had been conceived, that from henceforward the Houses of the Inhabitants would no longer be exposed to be visited on a simple Suspicion of Treason, evil Doings, or Malversations, are now vanished; for the putting it off for two Months is considered as an absolute Refusal. Mr. Wilkes, who on Advice of the first Resolution of the lower House, which declared illegal General Warrants for searching and carrying of Persons and Papers, had ventured to repair into his own Country, in the Confidence that this Bill would pass in the like Manner in the House of Peers, has taken the Resolution of quitting that Kingdom, and returning to Paris, finding himself unable to get his proscription taken off, and to procure his Re-establishment in his Rights and Privileges. The indecent Expressions which he made use of in some of his Papers, against the Dignity of his Sovereign, and the Authority of Parliament, have been the principal Reason why they would not furnish him with an Opportunity of getting the Decisions issued against him revoked."

June 24. It is reported, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderness will be appointed to conduct his Majesty's Sister to the King of Denmark.

And we hear her Royal Highness has particularly desired, that her Wedding Cloaths, and her Royal Highness's other Dress, may be made entirely of the Manufactures of England.

According to Letters from Madrid, Orders have been sent from Court to stop the marching of the French Troops nearer to the Capital, from which it was believed Tranquillity was upon the Point of being once more established.

They write from Vienna, that the Turks have withdrawn Part of the Garrison of Belgrade, and were filing off Troops from all the Northern Provinces.

June 26. It is said that General Pulteney has resigned his Command of the 13th Regiment of Foot to his Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester. And,

There is a Talk that General Pulteney will be made Governor of Gibraltar, in the Room of General Irwin, to be promoted at Home.

It is said, that the Honourable Commodore Byron will be created a Rear-Admiral of his Majesty's Navy, before his Departure for the South-Seas.

His Majesty, in Consideration that several of the Domesticks of his late Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland are out of Employment, has ordered a Year's Wages to be paid each of them.

The new Prussian Minister, just arrived here, is said to be charged with a Plan for an Alliance between our Court and certain Northern Powers.

Letters from Leghorn advise, that at the next General Assembly of the Corsicans, it would be finally determined, which of the republican Systems of Europe should be adopted in the future Government of that State; when it was expected, that the Preference would be given to that of the Dutch, by encouraging Foreigners of all Nations to settle in the Island for the Benefit of Trade.

Letters just received from Cadiz mention, that fourteen Men of War and Frigates are now fitting out there, the Command of which had been given to Admiral Navarro, but the Destination of the Fleet was not known.

We hear that in the projected Voyage of the Dolphin Man of War, it will be attempted to make a Discovery what Land is to be met with to the North-East of the Philippines, as far as the Latitude of 60 Degrees, from whence to come about by the South to California; and whether Nova Zembla is an Island adjoining to the Main, or the Inlets of Hudson's Bay have any Opening to the West Sea.

It is said a noble Northern Peer, lately deceased at the Age of Eighty-four, for the last thirty-five Years, the Time he parted from his Lady, had not conversed with twenty-five Persons, besides his own Domesticks.

They write from Antigua, that a free Negro has lately discovered a very rich Crimson Dye, from a Preparation of the Fruit of the Manchineal Tree; which for Brilliancy of Colour, exceeds any thing hitherto attempted, and was extremely durable.

June 28. We hear, that the Isle of Man will have the Liberty to send four Members to Parliament, and the Bishop of the Island to have a Seat in the House of Peers; when, at the same Time, the Laws and Customs will be the same as in England, and Trade will be greatly encouraged, by settling two Manufactories there, one at Douglas, and the other at Peel-Town, next Session of Parliament.

It is said, that the late Voyage round the World, performed by Commodore Byron, in the Dolphin, was in Consequence of a Plan and Observations found among the late Lord Anson's Papers, and communicated by his Heirs to the Lords of the Admiralty.

We are pretty positively assured, that some Emissaries of France have been extremely active amongst some of the Sailors who went round the World with Commodore Byron, in Order to obtain Accounts of our new Discoveries in the South Seas; which it is said, are likely to prove to the Nation of infinite more Importance than has yet been made known to the Publick.

There are three other small Ships of War (sheathed with Copper) ordered to Sea, with a View to perfect Commodore Byron's Discoveries; it is said there is Reason to believe, there are not only, several small Islands near that already found out, but a main Land, supposed to stretch away to Tartary.

It appears by a Map just published of the Seat of War between the Grand Signior and Prince Heraclius of Georgia, that this intrepid Hero has penetrated already above 500 Miles into the Ottoman Empire. It should therefore be no Matter of Surprize that the Turks are seized with such a Panick as to cause them to draw Troops from their Garrisons in all the Provinces of that vast Empire, and raise Recruits, in Order to make head against the successful Inroads made by the Georgian Conqueror.

Letters from Stockholm, of the 3d of June say, that for Fear the Spirit of Insurrection, which has been excited by Hoffman, should increase, and attract a greater Number of Adherents, the Commanders and principal Officers of the Provinces have been ordered to their respective Charges without Delay, and for the same Reason, the customary Guards of the City have been doubled.

The French are raising forty Companies of Soldiers of 100 Men each, who are designed to go under the Command of M. St. Victor, to relieve their Troops in the Islands of St. Domingo, Martinico and Guadaloupe. Eighteen hundred of their Marines also are to be sent to the Isles of France and Bourbon, and to other Ports of the East. The India Company alone are likewise to be permitted to land, and have Factories there, but even they without interfering as to the Garrisons.

Letters from Barcelona say, that the Marquis de Mina, on Advice of the Plot formed there against him, took the following Method of awing the Inhabitants into Tranquillity. Under Pretence of changing Part of the Garrison, he ordered a Body of Forces into the Town from a neighbouring Place, with which he strengthened the Guards, doubled those at the Gates, and commanded a Number of Pieces of Cannon to be drawn out of the Arsenal, which were placed in the Castle; but in such a Manner, that they could sweep the principal Streets and Cross-ways of the City. When he had taken these Precautions, he ordered the Inhabitants by Sound of Trumpet, to assemble opposite the Castle, from whence he made the Declaration to them, [mentioned in the first Page of this Paper, under the Madrid Article of May 30,] and concluded with assuring them, that he was determined to support it with the last Drop of his Blood.

Yesterday the Duke of Gloucester kissed his Majesty's Hand, on being declared Colonel of the 13th Regiment of Foot, lately General Pulteney's. His Royal Highness appeared at Court in his Regimentals, which are turned up with Yellow, with a Silver Knot, and was complimented by the Nobility and Gentry on his Promotion.

It is now said, that the following Alterations will certainly take Place.

Mr. Pitt, to be Secretary of State, in the Room of the Honourable Mr. Seymour Conway, who is to be made a Peer.

The Right Honourable the Earl of Northumberland, to be first Lord of the Treasury. And,

The Honourable Mr. George Grenville, to be Chancellor of the Exchequer.

We also hear, that the whole of what is stiled the Ministry will be changed; that all Transactions of former Politicks are to be forgot; and that one regular and political Plan is agreed on, which will be pursued invariably, unless some extraordinary unforeseen Circumstances intervene.

Some very interesting Advices are said to have been received, by Express from Holland, relative to the Operations of Lord Clive in the East-Indies.

We hear that Commodore Byron is to winter at the Brazils, in Order to take the most early Advantage of the Season, for a speedy Passage through the Streights of Magellan.

Several new Grants of Lands, to the Amount of 34,000 Acres, in the Province of East-Florida, now lie ready to be signed by his Majesty.

Some Letters from Madrid mention, that the Court of Spain had prohibited the Exportation of Paraguay Diamonds from any of the Provinces of South-America, on Pain of Death.

The Report of a Massacre of the Spaniards in Mexico seems to gain Credit; and it is very confidently said that the Insurrections in Spain are of a more important Nature than has yet appeared from any of the publick Accounts.

LONDON,

July 1. Yesterday the Earl of Rochford kissed his Majesty's Hand, on being appointed Ambassador to the Court of France.

The same Day Sir James Gray kissed his Majesty's Hand, on being appointed Ambassador to the Court of Madrid.

It is now said, that Mr. Pitt will not accept of any Department in the Administration, but that a new Ministry is forming, who will have the Sanction of his Approbation, some of whom are from remote Parts of the Country, and have never breathed the contaminated Air of the Court, who notwithstanding, have Virtue and Abilities which will astonish and cover with Shame all the Sons and Ministers of Corruption.

The gigantic Inhabitants of the Island discovered by Commodore Byron, had not, it is said, a single offensive Weapon amongst them, but though dressed in Skins, had generally Bracelets of Gold upon their Arms, and were attended each with a Dog of uncommon large Size.

It is said that the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford will be furnished with a spirited Memorial to the Court of France, with regard to the Payment of the Canada Bills, before his Departure, for his Embassy to that Kingdom.

We are informed, that some Ships of War will be immediately ordered to cruize on the French Coast, to watch the Motions of the Fleets now fitting out at Brest and Toulon.

They write from Copenhagen, that there has lately been dug up in one of the Mines in Norway, a Piece of Silver Ore, which weighed 560 Pounds, being 5 Feet 6 Inches long, and four Feet in Circumference, which is valued at Five Thousand Crowns, and is deposited in the King of Denmark's Museum, at Copenhagen.

It is reported, that the Danes are going to send out some Ships for making new Discoveries in the South-Seas.

On Friday there was a Hearing before his Honour the Master of the Rolls, concerning a Legacy of about 10,000*l. left by the late Sir William Pynsent, to the Right Hon. William Pitt, Esq; which was contested by some of the Relations of the said deceased Baronet; and after many learned Argu-* ments of the most eminent Counsel, it was determined in favour of Mr. Pitt.

July 2. It is thought the Departure of Sir James Gray, for Madrid, will be hastened, on Account of some fresh Matters necessary to be settled between the two Courts, relative to some British Captures in the West-Indies.

Advice is said to be received, that the Spaniards are preparing to send out a Fleet of Observation to the South-Sea.

Private Letters from Leghorn advise, that Prince Heraclius of Georgia, had gained a complete Victory over the Pasha of Erzerum, who had marched against him with a Body of 50,000 Men.

An Order is gone to the Out-Ports for augmenting the Crews of the Guard-Ships to their middle Complements.

Private Letters from Paris mention, that mild Measures with regard to the Corsicans, had been strongly recommended by the Ambassadors of two Foreign Powers.

They write from Paris, that the French Troops, who were sent to quell the Insurrections in Spain, are on the March back again from the Spanish Frontiers.

It is said, that the Garrison of Minorca will soon be reinforced, and the Fortifications of that Island be put in a better State of Defence.

The exact State of the Spanish Marine, according to Letters from Madrid, is said to be as follows, viz. 14 Ships of the Line at Ferrol, nine of them rigged and in Commission; 10 at Carthagena, only five in Commission; 23 at Cadiz, 17 in good Order: No mention is made of Frigates, or Men of War upon the Stocks.

An Estimate of the Expence of Sheathing the whole British Navy with Copper, has lately been presented to the Board of Admiralty; which compared with that of Sheathing with Oak, is computed will rather be a Saving than otherwise, on Account of its Duration.

The Holland mail, which arrived last night, brings the account, that a violent shock of an earthquake happened at Constantinople, on the 22d of May last. Several mosques, the mint, and other edifices were destroyed, and upwards of a thousand persons lost their lives: A part of the quay was washed away by the violent agitation of the water. The Sultan encamped in the garden of the Seraglio, with all his court; and three days after, when the accounts came away, the tremulous motion in the earth was still felt.

CHARLES-TOWN, SEPTEMBER 9.

BY the Captains Leyeraft and Moncrieff, from Jamaica we are informed, That on the 11th of June last, the greatest Part of the Town of St. Jago, in the Island of Cuba, was destroyed by an Earthquake, and it is thought by the same Shock that happened at Jamaica, as mentioned in our last.—Some Thousands of the Inhabitants perished in the Ruins.

Several Shocks of an Earthquake continued to be felt in Jamaica when the last Vessels came away in August.

On the 17th of August, Captain Moncrieff, met with a violent Gale of Wind, which he imagines was general thro' the Islands.

Off the Bay of Hunda, on the North Side of Cuba, Capt. Moncrieff saw a large Ship with only her Foremast, &c. standing, and supposes she lost her Masts in the above mentioned Gale of Wind; he took her to be Homeward-bound from Jamaica: And off Florida he again saw the said Ship, but could not give her any Assistance, as she was greatly to Windward.——Capt. Leycraft also saw the said Ship on St. Augustine; so that it is imagined she will endeavour to make the first Port on the Continent.

In the Gulph of Florida, Capt. Moncrieff spoke the Ship Rachael, Capt. Hardcastle, from Jamaica for Philadelphia, all well.

Last Thursday his Majesty's Packet-Boat the Anna-Theresa, Capt. Valentine Dyer, sailed for Falmouth.

Letters from St. Augustine, dated the 23d past, inform us, That the Garrison of that Fortress had been very sickly for some Time, and continued to be so; that there were not then more than two Officers able to do Duty; and that Capt. John Willson, commanding the Royal Artillery there, died the Day before, after a few Days Illness.

Extract of a Letter from Pensacola.

"The Creeks and Chactaws are now at War together.—The first, before the Choctaws meddled with them, were very saucy and insolent towards the White People; but, upon a Talk sent up to their Nation, by his Excellency Governor Johnstone, reprimanding them for their Conduct, they returned a very submissive Answer, and hoped we would not go to War with them, as they were sorry for what they had done, and desired to live our Friends for the future; requesting at the same Time, that his Excellency would be pleased to shew no Partiality, to either of the Parties who were at War together, and give one no more Powder and Ball than the other."

The last Accounts from the Creek Country inform us, that Eight Hundred of those Indians were gone, and going, to War against the Choctaws.

They write from North-Carolina, that one William Linvill, his Son, and another young Man, who had gone over the Mountains at the Head of the Yadkin-River to hunt, were there surprized by some Indians: The Father and Son were both killed on the Spot; the other young Man got off, though much wounded, and arrived at his Settlement, where he is since dead. No Accounts had been received of what Tribe or Nation the Indians were: But, it is thought, the Relations of those Cherokees who were killed last Year in Virginia, will, according to their inhuman Custom, take every Opportunity of Revenge, at least till they have killed as many as they lost.

The same Letters add, that the Government of North-Carolina hath agreed, that the Line dividing that Province from the Hunting-Grounds claimed by, and reserved to the Cherokees, shall be immediately run out, as proposed by the said Indians in their Talk to the Honourable John Stuart, Esq; Superintendant of the Southern District of America, viz. From the Place where the Line behind this Province terminates on Reedy-River, a North Course to the Mountains, and thence a direct Course to Colonel Chiswell's Lead Mine, on the Great Kannawah, behind Virginia. In Consequence of which, Orders have been dispatched to Mr. Cameron, the Superintendant's Deputy in the Cherokee Nation, to proceed with such Headmen as the said Nation shall depute, to meet the Persons appointed by his Excellency Governor Tryon, in order to finish this very important Business.

On Wednesday the 27th of August last, departed this Life, at the Congarees, in this Province, the Reverend Mr. ABRAHAM IMER. His Death is universally regretted, particularly by his Family, to whom he was a tender Parent, and by the Congregation over which he was ordained a Paſtor; his private and publick Diſcourſes, and pious Behaviour, were worthy of Imitation; and his Pariſhioners find in his Death an irreparable Loſs.
